HANDI QUILTER HANDS-ON VAN EVENT
July 8-July 10, 2026

Are You Longarm Curious?

Here's your chance to experience all a longarm has to offer and decide for yourself if one is right for you. Our Events will introduce you to longarm machines, free-motion quilting, computerized quilting, quilting with rulers and more.

Maegan Brewster
Educator

With over 20 years of experience, I am a seasoned quilter whose journey began at just 8 years old, in a mother-daughter quilt class. While my first quilt may still lack binding, that early introduction to the world of quilting ignited a lifelong passion for color, fabric, texture, and fiber arts. I continued honing my craft, sewing through my youth and helping my mother with her longarm quilting business. I also took part in Family Consumer Science courses throughout high school, further expanding my knowledge.

My professional quilting career truly began in college, where I worked at a local quilt shop, learning about fabrics, notions, patterns, threads, and machines. Over 13 years, I built strong relationships with fellow quilters and customers, running a successful longarm rental program, ruler club, and offering education classes for experienced quilters. During this time, I also started quilting for the public, discovering my love for helping others bring their cherished quilt projects to life.

In 2023, after my local quilt shop closed, I took the leap into entrepreneurship, purchasing my Handi Quilter Forte and launching my own business, "Mae We Quilt." As a teacher, my goal is to help quilters of all levels gain confidence in their own quilting style. Specializing in edge-to-edge quilting, both with Pro-Stitcher and free motion, ruler work, and custom quilting with Pro-Stitcher. I offer a supportive and engaging environment that fosters creativity and growth,
